

BPA released its most recent Biological Assessment for the Federal Columbia River Power System & Upper Snake River on September 6, 2007. According to BPA, the 10 year program includes major new funding commitments beyond those proposed in 2000 or 2004. For more information, visit www.salmonrecovery.gov. See "September 6" and click on audio material and publication.